US $ 3.40 (¥1,200)

YOUR TOUR HIGHLIGHTS INCLUDE:

● HIGASHI HONGANJI TEMPLE

A splendid example of Japanese Buddhist architecture.

● OLD IMPERIAL PALACE

Repeatedly destroyed by fire, the present building date from 1855. The buildings are fascinating in their noble simplicity.

● KINKAKUJI TEMPLE (GOLD PAVILION)

A famous structure of the Muromachi period (1392-1573), originally designed as the villa of a court noble.

● NIJO CASTLE

Originally built in 1603 by the first Tokugawa Shogun to serve as a residence on his visits to Kyoto.

On Sundays and national holidays, visits are made to the Daisen-in Garden instead of the Old Imperial Palace.

(9:30 a.m.—12:30 p.m.)

● KYOTO ART & CRAFT TOUR

US $ 5.00 (¥1,800)

YOU WILL VISIT:

● DYEING FACTORY

The whole process of the traditional way of creating the famed beautiful Kimono designs is seen here—pattern making, painting, dyeing, etc.

● NISHIJIN SILK MUSEUM

Here you see the traditional art of weaving of Nishijin silk fabrics as well as the excellent show-room of silks. Though synthetic textile fabrics have appeared, the popularity of silk has been increasing because of its softer feel.

● WOODBLOCK PRINTING STUDIO

Then you visit the home of a famous artist and woodblock printer to see a new technique of Japanese woodblock prints.

● LACQUERWARE FACTORY

Here you can see the complete manufacturing process as well as the beautiful finished goods on display. Japanese lacquerware is among the best in the world and has become one of Japan's main products.

● KYOTO GARDEN TOUR

US $ 5.00 (¥1,800)

GRASP THE ESSENCE OF JAPANESE GARDENING AT:

● MOSS GARDEN OF SAIHOJI TEMPLE

This is a stroll garden built around an interesting pond, with two islets in it, planned so that its shape is like the Chinese character "heart." This garden is entirely blanketed by soft, beautiful moss.

● ROCK GARDEN OF RYOANJI TEMPLE

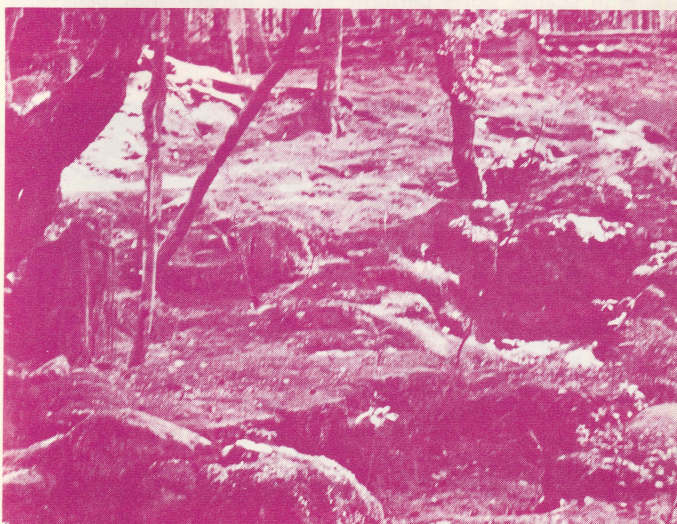

This is a flat garden, oblong in shape, and enclosed by earthen walls. The garden contains neither trees nor grass, but its white sand carpet and oddly-shaped stones placed in effective groups create a dramatically artistic picture.

● LANDSCAPE GARDEN OF TENRYUJI TEMPLE

This garden has a central pond with a waterfall, a stone bridge, and carefully-arranged stones partly submerged in water, all of which go to make up authentic landscape harmony.

● HILL GARDEN OF MURIN-AN

Designed by Prince Yamagata in 1897, this garden was a haven to spend peaceful days, aloof from the hustle and bustle of the world. Now it is owned by the Kyoto City Government.
